VYDAC[®], ALLTIMA[®], ALLTIMA[®] HP, PREVAIL[™], APOLLO[™], ALLSEP[®], APEX[™] and GENESIS[™] HPLC Column Ranges Acquired by Hichrom Limited

Dear Customer

Hichrom Limited are pleased to announce we have acquired the worldwide exclusive rights to manufacture Vydac[®], Alltima[®], Alltima[®] HP, Prevail[™], Apollo[™], Allsep[®], Apex[™] and Genesis[™] analytical HPLC column ranges from Grace.

Based in the UK, Hichrom are a leading European manufacturer and distributor of UHPLC and HPLC columns, consumables and media, with manufacturing facilities accredited to both ISO9001 (Quality) and ISO14001 (Environmental) standards.

Hichrom have now commenced manufacture of these columns to the same exacting manufacturing protocols and to identical specifications previously used by Grace/Alltech. Part numbers also remain unaffected by the acquisition.

Under the terms of the acquisition, the complete range of these products are now exclusively available from Hichrom and our global distributor network, and are no longer available directly from Grace.

For further information or assistance, please contact Hichrom directly by one of the following options:
